"Nothing but Men."

The first time I ever saw Abraham Lincoln was a few weeks after his great speech at the Cooper Institute, New York, on "What our fathers thought of the subject of slavery." I was in the law office of my friend, the late Colonel John A. Bross, who was killed before Petersburg, while nobly defending his country's honor. The United States Court had been in session upon that day, and had just adjourned, it being about 4 o'clock. Mr. Lincoln came in, smiling and holding a letter in his hand, and as he entered the room, said:

"John, I have just received a letter from my boy," (and I think he said the first one he ever received from him). "I thought I would come in and read it to you, or a portion of it, for the young man writes pretty well; especially regarding the good advice he received from his mother."

After discussing the letter, talking over army matters, etc., I said to him: "Mr. Lincoln, you have been to New York, recently, I believe?"

He said, "Yes; he thought he would go down and look over the East a little; get posted up, compare notes, etc. Never had been East but once before; then only to Washington for a few days—more by mistake than anything else—didn't know as he would ever fine a better time; so he went, and had a very pleasant trip."

Colonel Bross said to him: "Well, Uncle Abe, I suppose you saw all of the big men?"

"Yes."

"Secretary Seward, Greeley, and Everett?"

"Yes, and several other distinguished names whom I do not now remember."

"Well, Uncle Abe, what do you think of them, come to get acquainted with them personally?" Mr. Lincoln turned around in his chair, placed his hand on the Colonel's knee, and said: "John, they are nothing but men when you get up close to them!"

I shall never forget the expression of his countenance, nor the accent of his voice, as he said it. There seemed to be a glory of his countenance which said, "brain against brain, heart against heart, true ability against true ability, they are not your or my superiors."

"Why," he says, "we sat down and talked over matters as freely and unconstrained as you and I would. They are the most approachable men you ever saw; really felt at home with them."

I never thought of Abraham Lincoln as President, surrounded by senators, representatives, generals, in fine uniforms, ministers of all nations and courts, in court dress and court manners; but I thought of him as I saw him in that humble law office, and saw that same expression of countenance, and heard those same words, "they are nothing but men."

One Secret of Sheridan's Success—An article on General Sheridan in the Citizen shows that his skill in obtaining information from the enemy first attracted attention to him in the West. He organized scouts, who penetrated the enemie's lines, and whenever his superiors wished to learn anything concerning the foe they sent to Colonel Sheridan's regiment. A writer in the Times likewise notes the same peculiarity in connection with his operations in the Shenandoah Valley. He says:

It was one of Sheridan's peculiarities that he generally knew as much about the enemy as he did about his own army. He had learned, from his scouts, that Kershaw's division was surely to be ordered back to Richmond. "Being apprised of this fact," says he, "I had, for two weeks, patiently awaited his withdrawal before attacking, believing the condition of affairs throughout the country required great prudence on my part. In this view I coincided with the Lieutenant General commanding." General Grant who visited Sheridan on the 17th of September, has recorded a very interesting reminiscence of the interview: "I met him at Charlestown," says he, "and he pointed out so distinctly how each army lay, what he could do the moment he was authorized, and expressing such confidence of success, that I saw there were but two words of instruction necessary—Go in! I asked him if he could get out his teams and supplies in time to make an attack on the enemy Tuesday morning. His reply was, that he could before daylight on Monday."

A Valley One Mile Deep—A Day Without a Night.

W. W. Thomas, late United States Consul at Gothenburg, Sweden, in a letter on Norway, thus describes that far northern country and one of its particular phenomena:

Imagine a huge table land, rising 3,000 to 6,000 feet sheer above the sea—one vast rock, in fact, bleak and barren, covered with snow, swept with rain, frozen in winter, sodden in summer—the home of a few reindeer and Lapps, and you have Norway proper, nine-tenths of the Norway that is shown on the map. But the rock is not whole; it is cracked apart here and there, and fissures show like slender veins over the country. The sides of these ravines are steep as the cleft left by an axe, and their depths are always filled by a foaming brook or river tumbling along from the drenched table land above the sea. I have looked from the bottom of one of these valleys and seen the perpendicular rock rise 5,000 feet on either side, and heaven show like a strip of blue ribbon. Wherever in these dales there lies a bit of earth 'twixt rock and river, there the Norwegian peasant has built his cot, and it is on such bits of earth that inhabited Norway is situated, and here live its 1,200,000 people. The land just around his door gives the Norwegian potatoes, rye, barley and oats; his cattle climb the steep above for every stray blade; for the rest he depends upon the sea and river. Were it not for the excellent fisheries along this northern shore Norway would be uninhabitable.

One night in July, 1805, Hon. J. H. Campbell, late minister at Stockholm, the two Messrs. Buckley, of Brimingham, and myself, landed on the shore of a northern fiord in latitude 60 degrees north. We ascended a cliff which rose 1,000 feet above the level of the sea. It was late, but still sunlight. The Arctic Ocean stretched away in silent vastness at out feet. The sound of its waves scarcely reached out airy lookout. Away in the north the huge old sun swung low along the horizon, like the slow beat of the pendulum in the tall clock in out grandfather's parlor corner. We all stood silent looking at our watches. When both hands came together at 12 midnight, the full round orb hung triumphantly above the wave—a bridge of gold running due north spanned the waters between us and him. There he shone in silent majesty, which knew no setting. We involuntarily took off our hats; no word was said. Combine, if you can, the most brilliant sunset and sunrise you ever saw, and its beauties will pale before the most gorgeous coloring which now lit up ocean, heaven and mountain. In half an hour the sun had swung up perceptibly on its beat, the colors changed to those of the morning, a fresh breeze rippled over the fiord, one songster after another piped up in the grove behind us—we had slid into another day.

Attacked by a California Tiger.—The Sonoma Democrat of Nov. 9th says:

A few days ago Messrs. Hodges, Lague, Lovejoy, and a couple of other gentlemen residing in this vicinity, went on a visit to the lower counties. While camping out one night, about 8 miles from San Luis Obispo, Hodges, who was sleeping with Lague, was suddenly awakened by the outcries of his companion and the ferocious growling of some wild beast. He found the brute in bed with them, standing over his face, and having hold of Lague by the arm. Mr. Hodges instantly jumped up and seized it by the neck, and began pounding and kicking it so vigorously that the beast, a large California tiger or lion, released its grasp of Lague and put off into the woods. The wounded man's arm was very painfully injured, although not severely. Lovejoy, who is a crack shot, was some distance off at the time. He tried hard to draw a bead on it, but could not do it. Hodges, during the struggle, was afraid to shoot for fear of hitting his companion. It strikes us that camping out is uncomfortably perilous in that section.

Tamalpais.—The Marin County Journal gives the following explanation of the meaning of the name of a high mountain peak of that country. It says:

The origin of the name of our Marin county landmark, Tamalpais, has puzzled many of our California lexicographers. Tamalpais is a compound word belonging to the Aztec language. [illegible] signifies an article of food prepared thus: Cornmeal, made into a stiff dough, incloses a piece of meat, making a sort of dumpling, which is enveloped in cornhusks and boiled. "Pais" means region or country. Putting the two together in English, then, we have a name for the region surrounding our noble mountain—"Dumpling land." But alas! the noble Dumplers, once numerous, have departed, leaving their shell mounds and the mountain bearing their name behind them.

Death of an Old Californian at the East.—By a private letter, received by Mr. Henry M. Beach, of the firm of W. H. Richards & Co., yesterday, we learn that Benjamin F Reed, of the late firm of Snyder and Reed, of this city, died of consumption, at Coxsackie, New York, October 13th, in the 40th year of his age. Mr. Reed was among the early pioneers of California, arriving in 1849, and was in business in this city for a number of years, returning to his old home at the East, two years since, with an ample fortune, well earned in the Golden State. His health had been failing for a number of years previous to his departure from San Francisco, and it was on that account that he quit business here and returned to the East. He was unmarried. His acquaintance in this State was very extensive, and he was highly respected as a business man, a citizen and a gentleman, in every sense of the term.—Alta, 14th inst.

When Dr. Holmes was on his way to Dartmouth, N. H., some years since, to deliver a literary address in place of Rufus Choate, who from ill-health was unable to be present, some one asked him if he was going to fill Choate's place. "Fill Choate's place! fill Choate's place!" exclaimed the Doctor, "No; I am going to rattle around in it." This, says the New Bedford Mercury, is precisely what Andrew Johnson is doing in the place once filled by Abraham Lincoln.

James Gordon Bennett, Jr., the yachtist, and late manager of the New York Herald, was arrested on Broadway, New York, Nov. 1st, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He resisted the officer and fought all the way to the station. It is said he has quarrelled with his father, been dismissed from the Herald, and has "gone to the bad."

The failure, on the 24th of last month, of Robert L. Taylor, a merchant of New York, 70 years of age, of high standing—whose balance sheet thirteen months ago showed him to be worth $2 200,000—is a sad and signal illustration of the fickleness of commercial prosperity, and goes far to explain the general tone of depression which for some time has pervaded business circles in New York.

Hon. Wm. McGrorty, of Ellsworth, Kansas, paid our city a flying visit to-day. He proceeds from here to Washington to contest the seat of W. H. Hooper, who claims to be delegate from Utah. Mr. McG. received the only legal vote cast at the last election for delegate in that Territory.—Hays City Advance, Nov. 12.

The New York Herald remarks that near all the stock brokers who have figured for fifteen or twenty years in the stock market have come out as they commenced. In fact, Wall street is an expensive three card monte table.

The dove was the first newspaper carrier, when one morn it went out and fetched a leaf for Noah. It contained a paragraph on the weather, notifying him that the heavy rain had subsided.

It is said that Charles Dickens is to give eighty readings this side the big pond, and it is said will visit the far West and take a ride on the Union Pacific.

Gold Quartz vs. Silver Quartz.

There are many persons inexperienced in the modus operandi of quartz milling, who imagine that the cost of milling gold quartz approximates in cost to the milling and reduction of silver bearing quartz, and they consequently believe that a gold quartz vein will prove of little value to a poor man, unless he can sell the same, or induce some rich man to put in their surplus capital to develop and work it.

We frequently hear the remark made by parties who have dabbled in silver mines, or in something falsely purporting to be such, that "it takes a gold mine to work a silver mine," but we have yet to hear that it takes a silver mine to work a gold one. In proof of the first proposition these persons invariably refer to the history of the great silver mines of our neighbor Nevada. It however does not follow that because the working of silver quartz mines are so very expensive that all other quartz leads are equally so; per contra, we assert, and we have some little practical knowledge of the matter whereof we speak, that there is no sort of approximation in the cost of working gold rock and silver rock. However rich a silver lead a man may discover, he cannot realize a cent out of it by working the ore until after he has expended large sums of money in erecting the necessary reduction works. He cannot, as with a mine of gold quartz, commence in a small way and make the mine pay its current expenses as the process of development is carried on. When gold bearing quartz veins are found nearly free from the base metals, as are those of the Sweetwater mines, the fortunate discoverer or owner of a rich lead can, although he may be as poor as Job's Turkey, or that far more impoverished class of individuals yeclept editors and printers, by industry and perseverance, develop his claim and turn the product of his ores into gold bars without any aid from outside parties. The cost of reducing gold quartz is now but a moiety of the sum it once cost. A quartz mill capable of reducing 40 tons of rock per day can be placed on the ground in the Sweetwater mining country for one tenth the amount of money that it has cost for erecting any respectable sized mill in the State of Nevada; and where owners of good claims have not the means for erecting a first class mill, or do not feel disposed to sacrifice a part of their claims for the purpose of acquiring the means they can by the simple labor of their hands, and with the materials found on the ground, erect arrastars that will enable them to get the principal part of the gold from their rock, and by prudence and economy acquire in a very short time the necessary amount of funds to enable them to purchase and put up the most improved and modern style of mill.

With the poor owner of the silver quartz leads the case is quite different, he may own a thousand of the best leads in the country, but if he expects to do anything toward the development of them, he must call to his aid the capitalist before he can take the first step toward the desired end. A good gold quartz ledge can now be almost as cheaply opened and worked as a gold placer claim.

From Montana.

From the Montana Post of November 21st:

YOU DIDN'T SEE IT.—The children of Japhet are not alone in the inheritance of Sampsonian virtues. From the loins of Shem sprang not all the Musselmen. The sons of Ham hammer each other in the fistic ring with a zeal, earnestness and pertinacity but feebly conveyed by that classic and historic expression, "the colored troops fought nobly." We witnessed a mill on Sabbath between two sable individuals who left Orem and Dwyer in the awkard squad, compared to the disciplined perfection that characterized the graceful poses and elegant attitudes assumed by the combatants. More than this they would have made an excellent model for a quartz mill. The champions were "Pete" and "Levi," the place, the ravine beyond the grave-yard; the stakes their fistic reputation. Time, Sabbath 11 A. M. The rounds were all 'round the point of the hill; admission free. The fighting was interspersed with [illegible] upon the parentage, odor, color and [illegible] being "you [illegible]," while Pete came back with the [illegible]. The set-to [illegible] over an hour, and [illegible] in every "five" [illegible] than during the entire Nevada fight. In the crisis of a round, Sheriff McCranor lit in the ring with the remark; "I want you, boys" A double pair of "whites" were rolled toward him, a quick scatter of the pale faces in attendance, and the big darkey reached out his pedals in one direction, too full (of fear) for utterance, while the smaller bounded in another, with a "Ki his white man, I'se g-w-i-n-e right away from heah, now," and the Sheriff was left alone in his glory. It was thought excellent sport by the uncolored forty who were urging it on, and the town would doubtless have been depopulated had it been advertised on the streets. Both darkies had splendid "heads" on them when it was interrupted. It is said a stake of $100 is up for another fight on Sunday.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—Advices received direct from Bannock state that a shooting affray occurred a few days since at Horse Prairie, between Andy Livingston and a Mr. Stevenson, in which the former was badly wounded in the groin. The trouble originated about a woman. Livingston's wound is serious and may prove fatal.

TERRITORIAL OFFICERS.—In accordance with the act approved on the 16th inst., a Joint Convention of the Legislative Assembly, on Tuesday afternoon elected Capt. John Rogers, of Virginia, Territorial Auditor; Mr. Barclay, of Edgerton, Territorial Treasurer, and Prof. T. F. Cambell, of Edgerton, Superintendent of Public Instruction. The balloting for Treasurer was spirited and close, Mr. Hill withdrawing after the 11th ballot. The journal of the convention shows a record of votes for Superintendent of Public Instruction not becoming the dignity of a Legislative Assemblage, and which we consider them obliged to us for omitting. The act under which this election was held, provides that hereafter those officers shall be elected by the people. We hold that, under the Organic Act, Sec. 7, the enactment is void. The right to nominate and appoint rests with the Governor and Legislature, and cannot be waived or conferred upon the people.

PERSONAL.—Col. A. K. McClure and lady have added social sunshine to that which nature has so generously bestowed upon us for a few weeks, by a brief visit to the Capital. They are each representatives of one of Natures most successful efforts to combine health and happiness, and the mountain breezes of Montana have not marred the handiwork of the genial zephyrs of the Cumberland Valley. Franklin Repository is at liberty to copy and send bill to this office.

From the West.

[From the Reese River Reveille.]

San Francisco, November 19.

J. Ellerick has commenced an action against J. B. Alvarado and some 300 others, defendants, to secure a portion of a large tract of land on the shore of San Pablo Bay. The property is valued at $179,380.

A Chinese theatre, to cost $40,000, is to be built on Jackson street.

Jos. G. Croft, of this city, was drowned Nov. 15th, at the mouth of the Novaro river. He was on board the schooner Ino when a gale arose, and the mate, four seamen and the deceased started for the shore in a small boat for safety, but it was capsized and Croft was drowned.

San Francisco, November 21.

Sanger, late a defaulting cashier of the San Francisco and Pacific Sugar Refinery, went out to China in the Great Republic, and presented himself as the agent of the refinery, and was banqueted and otherwise honored as its representative. He chartered vessels to load sugar at Manilla for the San Francisco Refinery, and made drafts on Geo. Gordon, one of which Koopmanschap cashed for him. Tate removed the refinery agent in China, and appointed another. It is not thought he will await the China's arrival at Hong Kong.

The annual convention of Fenians, of California, is sitting in concert with the Irish Revolutionary Brotherhood. They recognize John Savage as Chief Executive of America. The session of the 14th and 16th inst. endorsed the policy of the Irish Revolutionary Brotherhood as enunciated by Thos. J. Kelly, in Ireland, and John Savage in America. The affairs of the organization are represented as in a satisfactory condition. J. O'Mahoney was elected State Centre, M. Cummings, Secretary, and Thos. Mooney, Treasurer. The State Council for California, are M. C. Smith, J. P. Tierney, T. J. Ahern, R. J. Tannan, B McMurray, of San Francisco P. Devinis, of Crown's Valley, Jno, McCabe, of Sonora, and P. J. O'Grady, of Laporte.

The revenue officers have seized 400 cases of absinthe for violation of law—the packages being of less capacity than 30 gallons.

John F. McCauly commenced suit against the Quicksilver Mining Co. for lands in Santa Clara, and $100,000 damages, and rents of $30,000 per month since August 30th 1857.

The Custom House authorities have siezed a large quantity of opium on the Great Republic, which the Chinese passengers had attempted to smuggle into this country. The drug was packed in small boxes and secreted between the staves of tubs.

The Pacific Mail Steamship Company are making arrangements to erect one of the new fog whistles on Point Bonita, north of Fort Point.

Judge Bix still continues to exercise the functions of Police Judge. It has been agreed between Provines and himself to refer the matter to three of the Supreme Judges.

San Francisco, November 22.

The Chamber of Commerce held a meeting last night, to consider the Hawaiian Reciprocity Treaty. Letters were read from Governor Low, and Senator Cole. The former considers the treaty of the utmost importance to California and the United States. The latter asks for information. After a lengthy discussion the matter was referred to a committee for investigation to report at an early day.

The Gardenville Homestead Association, filed its certificate of incorporation yesterday. The stock of the association is all taken. The location of the lands is in the suburbs of the city, on the O'Niell and Haley tract on the line of the Bay View Railroad.

A Monterey telegram says Antonio Valenzuela was hung yesterday for the murder of Frank Johnson, of Natividad. He confessed his guilt on the scaffold. An American accomplice is still at large. Obispo Acres was sentenced to be hanged at the same time, but the sentence was commuted to 30 years imprisonment by the Governor.

HAYS CITY.—Standing directly upon the edge of the Great Plains, Hays City is the natural outlet and inlet of the Western trade. It is but 300 miles from Denver, for which point the best coaches on the continent leave daily. The stock of the Overland stages consists of large, powerful and fleet animals and 48 hours of pleasant travel lands the passenger at the door of our mountain neighbor

The large Fort which stands as sentinel over the plains, and is the starting point of all active military operations, fronts the southern boundary of our town. The Government trade in itself is immense, and our city will have the benefit of it for years.

The great Santa Fe trade is centering here, and will do so for the future.

Hays City stands without a rival, either present or prospective, for that large and lucrative traffic. This trade can not be diverted, receiving as it does the advantage of a great saving in both time and expense. There is little doubt but that the Santa Fe Railroad, in a few months, will be in process of construction from this point. We will then be at the junction of the mightiest channels of freight and passenger traffic on the continent.

Machine shops, round houses and depots have been already located at Hays' City, and warehouses for the Santa Fe trade are being built.

Hays City is mid way between Denver and the Missouri River, and the centre of the Eastern Division of the Union Pacific Railway.—Hays City Advance.

WESTON, THE PEDESTRIAN.—Some amusing things are occurring along the route walked by Weston. When passing through Connecticut, two old men, who had once been famous as walkers, proceeded to try their pace with "the boy." "Ned," at this time was going at a four mile gait, and consequently they had no difficulty in keeping up with him for a few moments, but as soon as he began to stretch out into his long, striding gait, their arms began to work and their coat tails to fly, and finally they turned into a by-road, laughingly acknowledging themselves beaten.

Near Hartford a large company awaited our coming, and started to keep him company into the city. "Ned" had taken his work easy up to this point, but on nearing the bridge he increased his speed until all who followed him were obliged to run in order to keep up with him.

A DISPATCH dated Mokelumne Hill, Cal., November 17th, says: A horrible murder was perpetrated near Rich Gulch, in this county, yesterday morning. Jerry McKisson, who owned a ranch through which a road ran, was at work fencing in his ground to turn the road outside of it, when a man named Bryan Fallon rode up, and a quarrel took place in regard to the road, which ended in Fallon drawing a pistol and shooting McKisson three times. After the second shot he fell forward in a post hole, when Fallon shot him the third time and then beat him over the head with his pistol, crushing the skull in and breaking the pistol to pieces. McKisson's wife ran to his assistance, when Fallon knocked her down and held her while he seized a pickax and drove it about four inches into McKisson's back. He then remounted his horse and started to escape. He was apprehended near the Junction by Deputy Sheriff Bates and lodged in the County Jail.

HORACE GREELY in his Ledger "Recollections" speaking of the time he commenced in the printing business says—"I tried Mr. James Conner, the extensive type founder, in Ann street, but he, after hearing me patiently, decided not to credit me six months for the $40 worth of type I wanted, and he did right. My exhibit did not not justify my request. I went directly then to Mr. George Bruce, the older and wealthier founder, in Chambers street, made the same exhibit and was allowed by him the credit I asked; and that purchase has since secured to his concern the sale of not less than $50,000 worth of type.

Gen. Hooker is still quite ill at Paris, from his paralytic stroke.

Mrs. Lattie Bullock, sister of Gen. John C. Breckinridge, died in Kentucky.

Captain Rodman's son has been married to Admiral Dahlgreen's daughter.

Stephen A. Douglas, Jr., and his brother Robert, are in Richmond, Va.

KINDLING WOOD.—Jules Garner, of San Francisco, is manufacturing a new patent for fire kindling, consisting of saw-dust balls about the size of an egg, prepared with an inflamable substance and having a wick fixed in the center. By means of this wick fire is communicated to the ball, which burns fifteen or twenty minutes with a steady and bright blaze, leaving no unpleasant odor. If some enterprising individual in this community, where wood is so dear, would get hold of the right to manufacture the article and go into the business of manufacturing and selling it, he would put money in his purse and benefit the community at the same time. It is claimed for this kindling by the inventor, that a ten cent package will last more than a week.

THAT EDITOR.—We are informed by those who ought to know that Mr. T. B. H., them's the initials, did not go to Montana on business alone, but for things generally. The particular portion of his business is to examine the development of the babies, the "nurse" being a good judge. But, per'aps, he's gone to our northern clime to cool his polygamic propensities.

ARRIVALS AT THE REVERE HOUSE.

Nov. 25.—P. C. Mortimer, Belmont, Nevada; J. A. Roberts, Idaho City; David Lyon, do; W. C. Rogue, Helena; J. R. Lee, do; A. R. Delong, do; W. H. Brandon, do; Hank O'Conner, W. F. & Co.; Mrs. Jane Young, Helena.

JAMES A. SEDDON, formerly the rebel Secretary of War, presented some time ago to the President a petition for pardon under the first amnesty proclamation. This petition is said to be now under examination by the President, and the pardon is recommended by Horace Greeley, Gen. Burnside, Henry Ward Beecher, Augustus Schell, Wm. E Dodge, and other leading men of New York and New England.

SPEAKING of Julia Dean's personation of "Deborah," the New York Tribune, of the 23d ult., says: "She has lost many of her mannerisms, but is not yet wholly free from them. She is much improved, and is still improving, and deserves an ampler share of public favor and a higher rank in her profession than has as yet been accorded to her in this metropolis."

Forty-six million four hundred and eighty thousand acres of land have been set apart west of the Mississippi for the establishment and support of military institutions of learning, agricultural and mechanical colleges.

Black Kettle is the pretty name of the little Indian whom General Harney adopted, and who is now a big chief, helping to make treaties with his adopter.

Thurlow Weed's attacks on Mrs. Lincoln are continual. The old fellow, notwithstanding his infirmities, is still ambitious of being a "lady-killer."

HON. R. D. ASHLEY, the Nevada Representative, came overland from San Francisco, in spite of tomahawks and scalping knives.

WESTON'S tour will make walking popular. What a pity that some Miss Weston does not institute a rage for female pedestrianism!

Napoleon's pataloons are said to be Toulon and Toulouse.

$100 FOR TEN CENTS.

Only a few more subscribers are required to insure the speedy issue of the Great Illustrated Paper—

THE WEEKLY PRESS, which in size and appearance will resemble HARPER'S WEEKLY, but in value will far transcend that publication.

The PRESS will be an embodiment of the spirit of the age.

Each department will sparkle with the genius of the most eminent writers of the day.

An original SERIAL STORY of the most brilliant character will be commenced in the first number.

THE ILLUSTRATIONS will be entirely original and of the most attractive style and nature.

The great expense and labor involved in this enterprise render it necessary that we should start with an ENORMOUS CIRCULATION.

In order to do this, we shall do as follows: $10,000 in sums of $100, will be distributed through the first edition. To every given number of papers $100 will be allotted. Every copy of the PRESS will be enclosed in a stout wrapper, so that the papers containing the greenbacks will not be known by their external appearance, and all purchasers will have an equal chance for the money and gifts.

Besides the $100 BILLS, orders will be enclosed in certain copies of the edition for the following GIFTS:

	Each.

SENATORS.—The terms of twenty-one United States Senators will expire on the 4th of March, 1869, of whom fourteen are Republicans and seven Democrats.

ELECTION.—Judge Wm. H. Miller was the successful candidate at the election recently held in Cheyenne for Judge of the Superior Court or Court of Appeals for that city.

THEATRICAL.—We see it stated in the Montana Post that the Couldock's have closed their engagements north, and will appear on the boards of the theatre in this city November 30th.

FIRST.—The Cheyenne Argus of November 16th, says the first freight train of the Union Pacific Railroad "loaded down to the guards" with all manner of freight, rolled into their town on the 15th inst.

EMIGRANTS COMING.—A. W. Atwood, of London, England, has written a letter to the Commissioner of the Land Office, making enquiry relative to obtaining a quantity of land for the settlement of 50,000 emigrants, whom it is contemplated sending to the United States. The Commissioner has replied, referring to the great body of unoccupied land west of the Mississippi.

SALT LAKE THEATRE.—In a conversation last week, we gleaned that the receipts of the Salt Lake Theatre for the month of last September were $8,000; but whether they were in carrots, squashes, pumpkins, or "Lincoln skins" we did not ascertain. That's a pretty good income, considering that there are no outlays. Do theatres have to pay "infernal" Revenue?

HEAVY SUIT.—We understand that the lady who was so badly injured on one of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s coaches some time last July, has entered suit against Wells, Fargo & Co., and claims damages to the amount of $50,000. A month or so ago, the VEDETTE stated the lady had made a settlement with the company for the sum of $3,000, which was so, but under circumstances not at all commendable on the part of some of the parties concerned, if reports are to be relied on. The lady, we are told, is still confined to her bed and, it is probable that her injuries may prove fatal. We will present our readers with the facts of the case should it be tried at this session of the Supreme Court.

DEPARTURE.—Major P. A. Gallagher, for a long time past one of the most ... Gentile residents of the Territory, left on the western coach to-day for California. The Major came into Utah with Gen. Connor's Regiment of California Volunteers, and took an active part in many of the stirring scenes connected with that Fighting Regiment. SAN FRANCISCO

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbons' Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Loook at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it bee too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any other injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, by enclosing $15 in currency or $10 in coin, in a registered letter, through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded by express to any part of the Union.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.
